Anti-Ragging Policy

2. Anti-Ragging Policy

2.1 Preamble

AIMS Institutes shall ensure that its campus and accommodations facilities are free of the menace of ragging.

2.2 Objectives

1. To provide a safe and secure environment for all students.
2. To create an awareness among the students about the consequences of ragging.
3. To address ragging issues immediately, if any, and take appropriate action.

2.3 Scope of the policy

The policy and guidelines are applicable to all students enrolled in the institutions.

2.4 Anti-Ragging Policy

Ragging is a criminal offence and is governed by the Anti-Ragging Code of the UGC. The Institute is firm on ensuring that the UGC framed regulations on prohibition, prevention, and elimination of ragging are strictly followed on campus. It is punishable under Sec. 116 of the Karnataka Education Act, 1983 (Karnataka Act No. 1 of 1995).

Students will refrain from ragging of any kind and those who violate this rule will be instantly suspended from the Institute and accommodations for a period of one week. The matter will be placed before the Anti-Ragging Committee, which will review the incident of ragging and take action according to the due process of law. Students must take note that ragging results in their dismissal from the Institutes. Attention of the students is also drawn to the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India wherein it is mandatory for the institution to file a complaint with the Police Authority, and with all resulting consequences as per "The Circular of the Education Department, Government of Karnataka dated 16/08/1999 on Prohibition of Ragging in Colleges and Hostels."

Pursuant to the directives of the Honorable Supreme Court of India and in accordance with the UGC Regulations, on curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, the Institute has constituted the Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squads for overseeing the strict and meticulous implementation of all the directives.

In addition

- a. All students will be briefed about Anti-ragging policy in curbing menace of ragging in higher educational institutions as per the UGC and government Regulations, 2009 during the induction and orientation programs for fresher's and senior students and anti-ragging affidavit will be collected from them and their parents.
- b. Anti-ragging regulations along with members of the anti-ragging committee and anti-ragging squads and their mobile numbers will be displayed in the Institute's website and at all prominent locations in the campus and student accommodations.

- c. Anti-Ragging Squad will make surprise raids on hostels, and other places vulnerable to incidents of/having the potential of ragging.
- d. Anti-Ragging Squad will be empowered to conduct an on-the-spot enquiry into any incident of ragging referred to the Head of the institution or any concerned complainant and the enquiry report along with recommendations shall be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee for action.

2.5 Constitution of Anti-Ragging Committee
